LOOK FOR TROLLEY LINE.

Bon Air Residents Fear Project Is Only a Dream.

Residents of Bon Air and others who have invested in property in the neighborhood with the ultimate intention of building homes in the pretty little village are keenly disappointed over the slowness in completing the line which is to connect them with the City of Richmond. Many are beginning to wonder if the projected line will ever be an accomplished fact. Meanwhile property values are practically at a standstill, although the progressive people of the village are fighting hard for permanent improvements.

They have recently completed three miles of perfect highway from the Southampton Bridge to Bon Air. In a few weeks another portion of the road will be finished to the Midlothian Turnpike and the last link in a loop connecting with the city will be made. Although many of the people of this section have automobiles the larger number have been relying upon the proposed electric line.

The line was started three years ago, long before the bridge over the river was thought of. The bridge has been built and has been open to the public for nearly a year. All that has been seen of the trolley line is two streaks of rust rails that have been laid as far as the bridge, and which are slowing disintegrating.

Take Negro Back.
Deputy Sheriff W. W. Adams, of Anderson, S. C., arrived yesterday to take a colored man, who had been thrown from a wagon hanging in the tracks, to the city where he will stand trial for a murder committed there last August. The man was arrested Friday morning by Officer V. E. Wagnack, who readily admitted his identity. He has waived requisition papers and will be taken back to-morrow morning.

Thrown from Wagon.
Thrown from his seat by the rear wheels of a wagon hanging in the car tracks, Joseph Easley Jones, son of a Chesterfield farmer, was badly injured last night at 7:30 o'clock, at Twenty-fourth and Hull Streets, Swansboro. He was taken to the office of a nearby physician where a laceration in his head was sewed up. He also sustained a sprained wrist. He was able to continue his trip to his home.

Snatches Woman's Purse.
On complaint of Lizzie Cook, a young colored woman, a warrant for the arrest of Henry Chandler, colored, was issued last night. The man is accused of snatching a purse containing $1 from the woman. He managed to escape in spite of her outcry and was seen heading for the Northside.

Lion is Tamed.
Declaring he was a lion and hard to tame, Shadrack Loving, colored, created considerable excitement last night at 8 o'clock at the head of Hull Street. After some difficulty he was taken into custody by Officer George Jarrell, and after sobering up was taken before Magistrate L. W. Chestnery and jailed for appearance in the Swansboro Court next Friday morning.

The county authorities have a warrant for the arrest of John Price, colored, of Midlothian, who is accused of assaulting his wife, Mary, with a hatchet and inflicting dangerous wounds on her head.

To Hold Silver Tea.
A silver tea for the benefit of the building fund of the Meade Memorial Episcopal Church will be held to-morrow night at the home of Mrs. Charles T. Jones, 422 Porter Street. A program consisting of vocal and instrumental music will be rendered. Refreshments will be served.

Announces Marriage.
Announcement of the marriage of Miss Annie Lillian Jordan to Burton E. Daniels has been made. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride, 99 Maury Street, Thursday night, by Rev. R. M. White, pastor of the Decatur Street Methodist Church.

Negro Bailed for Trial.
Walt Davis, colored, charged with killing Peola Woolbridge, of Bon Air, was yesterday bailed before Justice H. A. Maurice, bail commissioner of Chesterfield County, in the sum of $100, for appearance at the next term of the Chesterfield Circuit Court. Joseph Galloway, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was yesterday fined $10 and costs in Police Court, Part 1.

Finds Welsh Rabbit Worst Possible Dish

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Boston, January 18.—Welsh rabbit is the most injurious substance a person can eat, according to Dr. Francis G. Benedict, director of the Carnegie Nutrition Laboratory. He believes it is even worse than small quantities of benzoate of soda and borax and boracic acid. The only difference is that one can achieve a weird dream on a rabbit, whereas benzoate of soda does not support even imagination.

Dr. Benedict ridiculed food faddists from Fletcher down in a talk at the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy. He declared vegetarians, although they might not indulge in a meat diet, were doing their best to imitate the taste and smell of it. "Man is carnivorous and is at his best only when he lives on a meat diet," said Dr. Benedict, "notwithstanding the fact that there are exceptions to this rule."

other strategic points connected with the Panama Canal.
Colonel George W. Goethals said such a guard was necessary and urged Congress to proceed on the theory that such an addition to the army be made to protect the interests of the United States on the isthmus. Colonel Goethals pointed out that in case of war it would not be practicable to send reinforcements to the Canal Zone. An armed force must be kept there ample at all times to deal with emergencies. Colonel Goethals would have the army in an entrenched position at easy access.

Colonel Goethals' statement made a strong impression on the committee, inasmuch as it was plain from his remarks that in order adequately to guard the canal it would be necessary for the United States to enlarge the navy as well as the army.

Colonel Goethals' address before the Naval Committee came up for discussion in the House later in the day incident to the debate on the army appropriation bill. Representative Mondell, of Wyoming, expressed the belief that if the addition to the army was used it would increase the cost of the military establishment at least $15,000,000 a year. The plan now being considered by the government contemplates sending only 3,000 soldiers to the isthmus.

MURDERER BEGINS TERM.

Joseph Smith, Slayer of Girl Wife, Placed in Penitentiary.
Joseph Smith, the Gloucester shipwright who recently killed his girl wife and attempted to take his own life with the same pistol, was brought to the State Penitentiary yesterday to begin service of the ten-year sentence imposed last week by the Gloucester County Circuit Court. He will probably be assigned to work in the shoe shop.

On the return from an excursion trip to Norfolk last summer, Smith's young wife goaded him to fury by making keating remarks about him to other young men and finally refused to accompany him home. Smith drew a revolver, shot her to death and turned the gun upon himself in a vain attempt to end his life.

Get Rid of All Indigestion

If Your Stomach is Lacking in Digestive Power, Why Not Help the Stomach Do Its Work?

Not with drugs, but with a reinforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach. Scientific analysis shows that digestion requires persin, nitrogenous ferments, and the secretion of hydrochloric acid. When your food fails to digest, it is proof positive that some of these agents are lacking in your digestive apparatus.

A Day's Work is so Much Play to the Man With a Stomach Kept Right With Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain these natural elements necessary to digestion, and when placed at work in the weak stomach, they immediately supply what these organs need. They stimulate the gastric glands and gradually bring the digestive organs back to their normal condition.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been subjected to critical chemical tests at home and abroad, and their composition has been approved by the highest authorities. There is no secret in the preparation of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Their composition is known among physicians as the most popular of all remedies for indigestion, dyspepsia, water brash, insomnia, loss of appetite, melancholia, constipation, dysentery and kindred diseases originating from improper digestion and assimilation of foods, because they are thoroughly reliable and harmless to man or child.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists at 50 cents a box, and are at once a safe and a powerful remedy, one of the great of all remedies for indigestion. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest your food for you when your stomach can't.—Advertisement.

WOMAN DISAPPEARS.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Home, January 18.—Mrs. William Mansfield, of New York, mysteriously disappeared on January 5 from Saloon Lake Garda, where she arrived before Christmas. She stopped at the Hotel Victoria and left on the morning boat for Desenzano. She intended to go to Verona and return on the same evening. She has not been heard from since.

The authorities have searched for her for two weeks. The woman's husband is in America, but his address is unknown, and the police are unable to communicate with him.

Some of the strikers denounced the protocol as a frame-up in favor of the manufacturers. Impatient strikers held an impromptu meeting late in the day and appointed leaders to organize a new union, which they said would work affiliation with the Industrial Workers of the World. Doubt exists to-night as to whether the strikers will accept the conditions.

Enhrum Kaufman, business agent of the United Male Garment Workers of America, gave out a letter he said he had received from a Congressman-elect, Francis O. Lindquist, of Michigan, scoring wholesalers and manufacturers in the clothing trades and declaring that he intended to devote his energies in Congress in the interest of the workers and in behalf of the garment workers of New York.

He expressed the belief also that it would be well for the garment workers to call for a government investigation into the profits of the wholesale clothing manufacturers.

Carter faces five charges. The most serious of these is that he is alleged to have stabbed Davy Harris, colored, about two weeks ago. Harris is now in the hospital and for a while it was thought that he could not live. Warrants sworn out some time ago accusing him of assaulting E. G. Woolbridge and trespassing on the property of Bettie Johnson were also placed against him when he was searched and a looking knife was found in his possession and the charge of carrying a concealed weapon was made. Bertucci also preferred the charge of disorderly conduct and resisting arrest.

A BAD MAN.
Five Charges Against Negro Who Fought Policeman.
Robert Carter, colored, pronounced by the police to be an "all-around bad man," was arrested yesterday afternoon by Patrolman Bertucci at Seventeenth and Broad Streets, but not until after the two had a hard struggle. It ended with Bertucci freely using his club, with the result that when Carter was landed in the First Police Station it was necessary for Dr. O. C. Page, City Hospital ambulance surgeon, to sew up a gash in his scalp.
